

Announcing Siemens new Class 81 Irrigation Pump Panel Available December 2008

This newest addition to the already extensive line of pump panels is designed specifically for the agricultural market. Our panels are well suited for the irrigation and similar pumping applications and built to withstand the harsh elements of the outdoors.

Product Highlights

- 15% Lower in price then Class 87
- Heavy-duty horsepower rated contactors
- Weld resistant silver cadmium oxide contacts
- ESP100 Solid state overload
- Siemens HEG style circuit breaker
- 40% lighter in weight
- 30mm type 3,4,12 & 13 oil tight pilot devices
- Pre-drilled for other popular pump control accessories
- Pole mounting flange at top and bottom
- UL rated for service entrance
- Stocked in LaMirada with 480V coils.
- Proudly Made in USA

Application

- Crop Irrigation
- Sprinkler, Mistlers and Soakers
- Watering livestock and other dairy applications
- Ground dewatering for excavation and construction sites

For more information contact your local sales office or you can order the brochure from Banta using order number NEBR-CLS81-1008